UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL MICHAEL J. OLIVER

Colonel Michael J. Oliver is the Vice Wing Commander, 113th Wing, District of Columbia Air National Guard, Joint Base Andrews, MD. He is the primary advisor to the Wing Commander on the command, control and oversight of two flying organizations, an air sovereignty detachment and several supporting units. The 1,300 member wing consists of the 113th Maintenance Group, 113th Mission Support Group, 113th Medical Group, and the 113th Operations Group. Flying units include the 121st Fighter Squadron which provides F-16C+ combat capability to combatant commanders, the Aerospace Control Alert responsible for the air defense of the National Capital Region, and the 201st Airlift Squadron which provides C-40 aircraft for Very Important Person Special Airlift Missions (VIPSAM).

Colonel Oliver began his military career in July 1990 when he enlisted in the 113th Wing as an F-16 Tactical Aircraft Maintenance Specialist. He received his commission in March 2000 from the Air National Guard Academy of Military Science. He has commanded at the flight, squadron and group levels, and also served as the Retrograde Division Chief, U.S. Central Command Deployment and Distribution Operations Center, Southwest Asia. Prior to his current position, the colonel was assigned as the 166th Maintenance Group Commander at New Castle County Airport, Delaware.
