CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT AMANDA L. AARON

CMSgt Amanda Aaron is the Command Chief Master Sergeant of the 316th Wing, Joint Base Andrews-Naval Air Facility Washington, Maryland. In this role, she advises the commander on all enlisted force matters and on issues regarding the welfare, readiness, utilization, morale, and quality of life for personnel across three headquarters, six wings, and more than 85 tenant organizations, as well as over 66,000 military and civilian Airmen and families in the National Capital Region and around the world. The 316th Wing supports contingency operations in our nation's capital with immediate response rotary-wing assets. The wing provides security for the world's highest visibility flightline, supporting the President of the United States and other senior leaders.

Chief Aaron hails from Temperance, Michigan, where she enlisted in the Air Force in 2004 and graduated from the Logistics Plans Apprentice Course at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

Chief Aaron has vast experience including duties at wings, MAJCOMs, and multiple joint assignments. Chief Aaron completed seven overseas tours, contingency response, and deployed in support of Operations Enduring Freedom and Inherent Resolve. Prior to her current position, she served as the Command Chief Master Sergeant "Wolf Chief," 8th Fighter Wing, Kunsan AB, Republic of Korea.
