UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL ANGELA F. OCHOA

Colonel Angela F. Ochoa is the Commander, 89th Airlift Wing, Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland. She is responsible for worldwide special air mission airlift, logistics, aerial port and communications support for the President, Vice President, cabinet members, combatant commanders, and other senior military and elected leaders as tasked by the White House, Air Force Chief of Staff and Air Mobility Command. The wing provides 24/7 alert airlift, and operates an Executive Airlift Training Center and Government Security Operations Center.

Colonel Ochoa was commissioned in 2001 from the Air Force Academy. Throughout her career, Colonel Ochoa has flown in Operations Enduring Freedom, Iraqi Freedom, Resolute Support, Freedom's Sentinel, and Volant Shogun. She served as a Joint Strategic Planner, Joint Exercises and Training Division, Directorate for Joint Force Development, Joint Staff, Pentagon, Washington D.C. Colonel Ochoa served as an Air Force Fellow in the McConnell Public Policy Internship at the McCourt School of Public Policy, Georgetown University, Washington D.C. She also served as the advisor to the Commander, Air Mobility Command, for senior leader management within the command.

Prior to this assignment, she served as the Commander, 19th Airlift Wing, Little Rock Air Force Base, Arkansas, where she was responsible for organizing, training and equipping the personnel who operate, maintain and sustain more than 62 C-130 aircrafts. She ensured support for combat, contingency and humanitarian requirements around the world while providing for the health and welfare of more than 11,000 personnel and families at Little Rock AFB.
