UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL TODD E. RANDOLPH

Colonel Todd E. Randolph is the Commander of the 316th Wing and Installation Commander for Joint Base Andrews-Naval Air Facility Washington, Maryland. As the host wing for Joint Base Andrews, the 316th Wing provides security, personnel, contracting, finance, medical and infrastructure support for five wings, three headquarters, and over 80 tenant organizations, as well as 60,000 Airmen and families in the National Capital Region and around the world. Additionally, the 316th Wing supports contingency operations in our nation's capital with immediate response rotary assets. It also provides security for the world's highest visibility flight line and is responsible for operations of the Air Force Memorial and the Air Force Arlington Chaplaincy.

Prior to this assignment, Colonel Randolph was the Commander, 27th Special Operations Mission Support Group at Cannon Air Force Base, New Mexico. The 27 SOMSG provides base support and services activities to ensure mission readiness of the 27th Special Operations Wing, including facility construction and maintenance, housing, food service, law enforcement, fire protection, explosive ordnance disposal, disaster preparedness, communications, personnel support, lodging, recreation, supply, contracting, transportation, logistics plans and other base services supporting 6,500 military personnel, civilian employees, their families and 6,000 retirees for all units and associated organizations on Cannon.

Colonel Randolph hails from Baltimore, MD where he enlisted in the Air Force in 1989. After completing Basic Military Training and Technical School, he served 11 years in the Mental Health career field before earning his commission as a Distinguished Graduate from Officer Training School in 2000. His experiences include assignments as Section Commander, Flight Commander, Executive Officer and Deputy A1 at the Numbered Air Force level, and Executive Officer for the Air Force Air Demonstration Team, the "Thunderbirds". Additionally, while assigned to the Secretary of the Air Force, Inspector General's office, he served on a 365-day deployment as the US Forces-Iraq, Joint Operations, Deputy Chief Borders Division, Baghdad, Iraq where he worked with the Iraqi Ministers of Interior and Defense to assist the Iraqi government with securing its borders and boosting economic prosperity.
